

JOSÉ ALFREDO ORTIZ-ANGELES

joseoa13@gmail.com • 503.320.8867 • 403 Helena St, College Station TX

EDUCATION

Texas A&M University

Ph.D. student in Philosophy • Continental & Latin American Philosophy

University of Oregon

September

2018 – June 2022

B.A., Philosophy • B.A., Romance Languages • European Studies Minor

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Consequence Magazine

October 2022 – Present

Art Editor

- Selects art submissions and conducts interviews with artists for each issue
- Writes features on each selected submission and artist
- Manages the Assistant Art Editor and collaborates closely with the Executive Editor

Ex Amino, Undergraduate Philosophy Journal – University of Oregon

August 2020 –

June 2022

Editor-in-Chief

- Determined schedule and process of planning for each quarterly issue, including setting long-term objectives for future issues
- Communicated and worked closely with contributors to the journal during the revision process
- Managed promotional materials for calls for submissions on social media and campus
- Led editorial board and associate editors in cooperative actions

Philosophy Club – University of Oregon

September 2021 – June 2022

Co-President

- Sourced and organized weekly guest speakers
- Conducted promotion around campus and on social media, on mostly a verbal basis
- Contributed actively to weekly meetings, including facilitation of discussion

Minorities And Philosophy (MAP) – University of Oregon

May 2020 –

June 2022 Undergraduate Board Member

- Selected and organized reading schedule for weekly meetings
- Conducted promotion around campus and on social media, specifically targeted at undergraduates

The Student Insurgent – University of Oregon

September 2020 – June 2022

Staff, Leader of the Prison Project

- Received and archived all mail sent from prisoners

- Created the Prison Project column, including write-ups of prisoner work and publication of prison-related topics
- Managed the Pen Pal program for the Prison Project
- Maintained prison mailing list, requiring constant verification of addresses due to the movement of prisoners

RESEARCH INTERESTS & SKILLS

- Indigenous thought of the Americas; Decolonial theory; Epistemology in the European tradition; European literature classics (with a particular interest in Italian and Latin)
- Bilingual – English and Spanish; Fluent – Italian and French; Proficient – Latin; Intermediate Reading knowledge – German

AWARDS

Humanities Undergraduate Research Fellowship (HURF) – University of Oregon

June 2022

Authored and presented research on decoloniality in the negritude movement, with a $2,500 award.