

Nora Tsou
Curriculum Vitae
Department of Philosophy

407 YMCA Building | College Station, TX 77843

noratsou@tamu.edu

Primary Interests: Decolonial Philosophy, Philosophy of Race, Latin American Philosophy, Asian American Studies

Secondary Interests: 20th Century Continental Philosophy

Education:

Texas A&M University, Department of Philosophy, College Station, Fall 2022–Present

Ph.D. Student

San José State University, Department of Philosophy, San José, Fall 2020–

M.A. Student

Dominican University of California, San Rafael, Fall 2018–Fall 2019

B.A. in Humanities and Cultural Studies

Thesis Title: “Asian-American Visibility: Movement Toward Authenticity and Exposing the White Gaze”

University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Fall 2015–2018

3 years undergraduate work in psychology and philosophy

Publications:

Tsou, Nora. “The Asian-American Experience and the White Gaze: On the Potentiality of Naming Oneself from Nowhere.” The Logic of Racial Practice, edited by Brock Bahler, 55-75. Lanham: Lexington Books, 2021.

Tsou, Nora. “Asian-American Visibility: Movement Toward Authenticity and Exposing the White Gaze.” Dominican Scholar, 2019.

Teaching Experience:

Instructor of Record:

PHIL 240: Introduction to Logic, Summer I 2023

Full Course Responsibility

PHIL 61 Moral Issues (2 sections), Fall 2020

Substitute Oct.-Dec.

PHIL 10 Intro to Phil (2 sections), Spring 2021

PHIL 9W Math and Logic Workshop (2 sections), Summer 2021

Early Start Program, Mon.-Thurs. recitation for PHIL9

PHIL 57 Logic and Critical Reasoning (2 sections), Fall 2021

Teaching Assistant

PHIL 240: Introduction to Logic (Christopher Menzel), Fall 2023

PHIL 111: Contemporary Moral Issues (Tom Ellis), Spring 2023

Graduate Assistant

PHIL 9 Math/ Logic for GE (2 sections) (Andrew Delunas), Summer 2021

PHIL 186 Professional and Business Ethics (Rebecca Chan), Summer 2021

PHIL 186 Professional and Business Ethics (Rebecca Chan), Fall 2021

Grants:

Funding for AAPI Philosophy Working Group, TAMU, Fall 2023

Awards and Honors:

Ruth Manor Award, San José State University, 2022

“In recognition of the special proficiency you have demonstrated in logic.”

Presidential Scholarship, Dominican University of California, 2018–2019

Dominican Grant, Dominican University of California, 2018–2019

Presidential Scholarship, University of Pittsburgh, 2015–2018

Panther Pride Award, University of Pittsburgh 2015–2018

Leadership Roles:

Founder of AAPI Philosophy Working Group, TAMU, Fall 2023

President for San José State University Philosophy Club, Spring 2021

Service:

Graduate Research Assistant for TAMU ACES Program, Fall 2023

Chair for “An Alternative for the Temporal Neutrality Thesis,” by Dong-yong

Choi. Colloquium: Practical Reason, APA Pacific Division. Virtual Meeting, April 8, 2021.
